

Camp Starlight Request for Fee Reduction

MUST BE RETURNED BY FRIDAY, MAY 31, 2022

The Michigan Dyslexia Institute (MDI) is continuously raising money to help persons with dyslexia who are unable to afford the camp fee. While funds for this purpose are always in great demand and short supply, MDI tries its best to assist each individual.

To be considered for help, certain information is required. The following questionnaire must be completed on both sides. The parent(s) having legal custody of the child must include copies of pages one and two of their most recent Federal Income Tax Return.

All Information provided shall be kept in the strictest confidence and shall be used only to determine eligibility for financial assistance. Where persons are judged to be eligible for help, actual fee reductions will be dependent upon the availability of
